

University Destinations of Kensington Graduates 2012-20 (122 students)

United Kingdom 66%

The 24 most prestigious and longest established universities in the UK are members of the elite Russell Group. These leading institutions are committed to the highest levels of academic excellence in both teaching and research. They offer internationally renowned courses and have very demanding entrance requirements, so only students with the highest grades are admitted. We are proud that over half of UK bound Kensington graduates since 2012 have been selected by these top universities (in the list below)*
